

Greater Washington
Urban League

*Empowering Communities.
Changing Lives.*

INTRODUCTION

The Greater Washington Urban League (GWUL or the League) is on a mission to increase the economic and political empowerment of historically vulnerable and diverse populations. For 88 years, the League has stood on society's frontlines as well as in the trenches serving as a safety net and facilitator of opportunity in Washington, DC and Montgomery County and Prince George's County, Maryland. As one of the District's oldest civil rights organizations, the League continues to carve a distinctive path towards justice and fair play by putting families first and catering to the needs of children and the elderly, and everyone in between. Since 1938, GWUL has guided individuals on the road to self-sufficiency, impacting over three million lives.

As an important and long-standing manifestation of its mission, the Greater Washington Urban League and its young professionals' auxiliary, Thursday Network (TN) are committed to awarding educational opportunities through scholarships for college-bound and currently enrolled college students. In conjunction with numerous corporate sponsors, GWUL has facilitated the distribution of nearly $2.1 million in scholarships to 358 young adults to financially support their freshman through senior years at any accredited four-year college or university in the United States. Scholarship recipients have matriculated to a diverse and elite range of higher education institutions, including Historically Black Colleges and Universities, local colleges, Ivy League, and other colleges/universities, as well as the Job Corps and other special post-secondary education and trade establishments.

For the 2026-2027 school year, the Greater Washington Urban League will award several scholarships to deserving high school seniors and current undergraduate students, ranging from $1,000 to $8,000. All scholarship disbursements are for tuition and will be delivered directly to the bursar's or student accounts office of the student's school for the Fall 2026 term.

ABOUT GWUL'S YOUNG PROFESSIONALS' AUXILIARY, THURSDAY NETWORK:

Thursday Network is the young professionals' auxiliary of the Greater Washington Urban League (GWUL) and supports community service and civic engagement efforts in the Washington Metropolitan area. Thursday Network's vision is to be a catalyst for change in the Greater Washington community by serving as a training ground for our members to improve community and self. For the 2025-2026 term, Thursday Network's pillars reflect the most urgent needs of the community. The pillars are Civic Advocacy, Economic Security, Leadership development, Youth Empowerment, and Social Determinants of Health. Through the leadership of the Community Service Committee, Thursday Network has developed several outreach efforts that benefit children, youth, the elderly, and the environment.

2026 SCHOLARSHIP APPLICATION

SECTION VII: WRITTEN AND VIDEO ESSAY

The National Urban League (NUL) has a history of providing direct services to communities in need. In honor of this commitment, the Greater Washington Urban League Scholarship Applicant must describe how they would assist a community in need and how they have served their community by submitting one written essay AND one video essay addressing one of the following questions:

WRITTEN ESSAY QUESTION – OPTION #1

Artificial intelligence and emerging technologies are rapidly changing education, employment, and civic life. While these innovations create new opportunities, they can also widen inequities in access, representation, and economic mobility. Discuss how AI and technology are impacting your community or communities of color more broadly. What benefits and risks do you see? Describe how you would help ensure that technological progress promotes equity, access, and empowerment rather than exclusion.

OR

WRITTEN ESSAY QUESTION – OPTION #2

Social media shapes how communities receive news, mobilize, organize, and understand the world—but it can also spread misinformation and deepen division. Discuss the role social media plays in your community or among your peers. How does it influence identity, activism, or access to opportunity? Describe how you would help promote responsible digital engagement and ensure that online spaces support empowerment rather than harm.

Written Essay Instructions:

- The essay response should be submitted as a Word document, saved as a 2026 GWUL Scholarship Application Essay - Your Initials. For an example, if your name is John Doe you would save your essay as the 2026 GWUL Scholarship Application Essay - JD.
- No longer than 1,000 words.
- Font should be 12 point, Times New Roman
- Double spaced with normal margins (1-inch top/bottom and left/right).
- Do not write your name or any personal identifier within your essay documents.

Your written essay will be evaluated for clarity of expression, use of proper grammar, and punctuation, and the extent to which you address each of the items in the questions above.

The Greater Washington Urban League and Thursday Network define plagiarism as “a direct violation of intellectual and academic honesty.” Although it exists in many forms, all plagiarism refers to the same act: representing somebody else’s words or ideas as one’s own. This can take the form of taking material from other sources, including the Internet, and deliberately failing to give credit in your essay to the original source. Therefore, it is very important that you properly document sources in your essay responses with verifiable citations. You may include citations in the footnotes of the Word document or on a separate “References” page. Citations do not count towards the 1,000-word limit. Additionally, the use of AI tools or assistance is strictly prohibited.

VIDEO ESSAY

Imagine yourself 10 years in the future as a leader in your field or community. In 120 seconds, speak directly to your “future self.” What impact do you hope you will have made? How will your education and experiences help you uplift and empower others along the way?

Video Essay Instructions:

- Video essays are expected to be your original work
- Recommended length of video is maximum of 120 seconds
- Upon request, winning submissions must be accompanied by a Microsoft Word document to accommodate closed captioning
- Applicants should upload their video to a shareable drive (e.g., Google Drive) or video streaming platform (e.g. YouTube, Vimeo) and provide the corresponding video link when prompted in the application.
- Video essays are not required to be publicly viewable. Applicants may submit unlisted or restricted videos. The submission link must be configured to allow viewing by “anyone with the link.” Submissions that require individual access requests or email-based permission will be considered incomplete
- Video should be saved in an MP4 file format
- Video resolution should be 1920 x 1080 (1080 HD at 60 fps or higher)
- Videos should have good audio sound quality
- We strongly encourage you to record your video using a smartphone or high-quality digital camera
- For video filming best practices visit www.gwul.org/scholarships and view our “Video Filming Guide”
- We suggest practicing your answers before recording

Guidelines for video essay eligibility:

- Professional (paid) assistance at any stage of the process is prohibited; using professional assistance is grounds for disqualification of your application
- Video essays should only contain your original work
- Videos may not contain material that infringes another’s copyright or licensing rights or otherwise infringes another’s rights, including but not limited to privacy, publicity, or other intellectual property rights
- Only the applicant must appear in the video. Submissions using animation, “cartoonification,” or voice-over without the applicant on screen will not be reviewed

Video essays will be evaluated on the following criteria:

- Providing an answer(s) to the prompt
- Clarity of message or theme
- Originality of work
- Creativity is encouraged but not necessary
- Applicants can provide their responses in the forms of spoken word, lyrics, or a monologue.

Disclaimer: Submissions will be evaluated based on content. Video presence or personality will not influence review outcomes.
